Too big for manufacturers to ignore

It's a fact that's impossible to ignore – your cost of manufacturing depends heavily on the price of supplies. And with material costs on the rise, along with inflation, your bottom line is being impacted.

That's a problem. Because if your products become unaffordable for your customers, your business will undoubtedly suffer. Taking steps to minimize the cost of every element of your manufacturing process is crucial to your success.

JAGGAER'S Advanced Sourcing Optimizer (ASO) can help. It's a more effective way of finding creative solutions to your supply challenges, not just 10% discounts from suppliers.

Here are some of the benefits you can enjoy.

ASO – The key benefits

It's your optimization engine for greater collaboration with your suppliers and truly creative problem-solving capabilities

These elements make up something we call Expressive Bidding®

And that's just the start

It can also reduce your transport costs

Find suitable suppliers close to you

Reduce your carbon footprint and

Enable easier, quicker, more flexible deliveries

And then it can simplify your entire supply chain

Partners can offer solutions that work for them – and for you

That leads to saved time as well as a lower total cost of goods sold

It can help you understand your product on a deeper level

Reduce analysis time by up to 75%

See all the cost drivers in a final product

Leading to a boost in ROI – on average, 12% cost savings

So you can build the ideal product

Using expressive feedback that considers:

Cost

Function

Appearance

And more

All while reducing the risks associated with new suppliers

Non-price variables enabled for an optimized award scenario

ESG criteria included in the award scenario

Supplier capacity considered in the scenario analysis

And you can get started at any time

JAGGAER ASO is a standalone product

You don't need other JAGGAER systems to get the most out of it

Add it to your existing systems and start saving

Get the right supply solutions for your business using intelligent, considered, strategic Advanced Sourcing Optimization from JAGGAER. Form stronger relationships with suppliers, find superior solutions for your needs, and build a better bottom line.
