JAGGAER Category Management: Turning Insight into Action

JAGGAER Category Management transforms how organizations plan, execute, and optimize category strategies. By connecting spend, supplier, and market intelligence in one workspace, procurement can build cross-functional strategies that maximize value and minimize risk.

The Power of a Connected Source-to-Pay Ecosystem

JAGGAER Category Management is the strategic intelligence engine within JAGGAER One. When connected across the Source-to-Pay ecosystem, it drives continuous category improvement, operational efficiency, and strategic alignment across the enterprise. Powered by intelligence and insights, it turns data into foresight and foresight into results.

Connected Capabilities. Accelerated Outcomes.

Procurement delivers more value when Category Management connects across the S2P ecosystem:

“Everything needs to be easy to manage and well organized, from the database to the RFQs. The goal is not simply to standardize monitor our category strategy sustainably. JAGGAER Category Management is the perfect tool to help us achieve these goals.”

Domenico Scotto di Luzio, the Head of Supply Chain in the Grains and Food Sector
