The Power of a Connected Procurement Ecosystem

JAGGAER Contracts is the bridge between upstream and downstream procurement processes. When combined with other modules in the JAGGAER One platform, it becomes part of a powerful procurement ecosystem that streamlines processes, accelerates decision-making, enhances supplier collaboration, and drives stronger business outcomes across the enterprise.

Connected Capabilities. Accelerated Outcomes.

Procurement delivers more value when Contracts connects across the S2P ecosystem:

Axfood

"Turnover time between contract discussion and contract signing has been significantly reduced. Having once taken weeks, it's now five days."

- Christian Dorch, Product Owner and Process Manager, Axfood
